DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-6,8-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Wong et al(US 6,119,933).

Claims 1,3-4,12-13: Wong disclose operating the point-of-sale system in a security setup mode operation by accessing the plurality of user interface elements wherein some of the user interface elements include a set of modifiable access properties that indicate a level of access needed to access that user interface element and establishing an access file for each user of point-of-sale system, the access profile indicates the level of access of user interface elements that each user is allowed to access in (col.1,lines 18-22;col.8,lines 59-67;col.9,lines 1-2). Wong disclose controlling each user interface element displayed on the point-of-sale system during a normal mode of operation by comparing the level of access indicated in the access profile of a user of the point-of-sale system with the level of access of each user interface element that is to be displayed in (col.8,lines 59-67;col.9,lines 1-4,18-23).

Claim 2: Wong disclose the access profile for each user of the point-of-sale system is indexed with the corresponding access properties for each user interface element to be displayed on the point of sale system in (col.8,lines 59-66).

Claims 5,9-11: Wong disclose an access control module configured to manage access of a plurality of user interface elements for each user of the point of sale system, the access control module comprising an access management module configured to allow an authorized administrator to set up access levels for user interface elements of the point-of-sale system; an access control table configured to store access profiles for each user of the point-of-sale system as set up by the authorized administrator each access profile indicates the level of access of user interface elements that each user is allowed to access in(col.8,lines 59-67;col.9,lines 18-23). Wong disclose a display management module configured to instruct the point-of-sale system which user interface elements should be rendered by comparing the access levels of each user interface element to the access profile of a user in (col.8,lines 59-66).

Claim 6: Wong disclose a graphical user interface that contains one or more user interface elements in (col.8,lines 62-65).

Claim 8: Wong disclose access levels of the user interface elements and the access profile of each user can be interactively changed by the authorized administrator in (col.8,lines 64-67;col.9,lines 18-23).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 14 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Applicant's Arguments

Applicant's amendment necessitated new grounds of rejection. New grounds of rejection are presented above.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
